HOTEL COLORADO

Nostalgia, The New Black

Hotel Colorado has captured the majesty and grandeur of earlier days, when silver miners, foreign dignitaries and legends of the Old West roamed our halls. When deals were struck over cigars and brandy. A place travelers came to by train through the rugged Rocky Mountains to gather and share. More than 110 years have passed since The Hotel Colorado beckoned it's first meeting, its first event. Today we continue in the tradition of high standards and excellent service, hosting events and meetings in the same grand style our patrons have enjoyed for over a century. Join us and you'll find that Hotel Colorado is more than a meeting place. It's more than you can imagine.

Winning Style

The true test style is how it weathers change, how it stands the test of time.

For 110 years, Hotel Colorado has graciously opened her doors to travelers and events of every kind.

Each guest, each event, has become a piece of the unique story that adds texture to the tapestry wrapped into the walls of this National Historic Landmark.

President Roosevelt held meetings here.

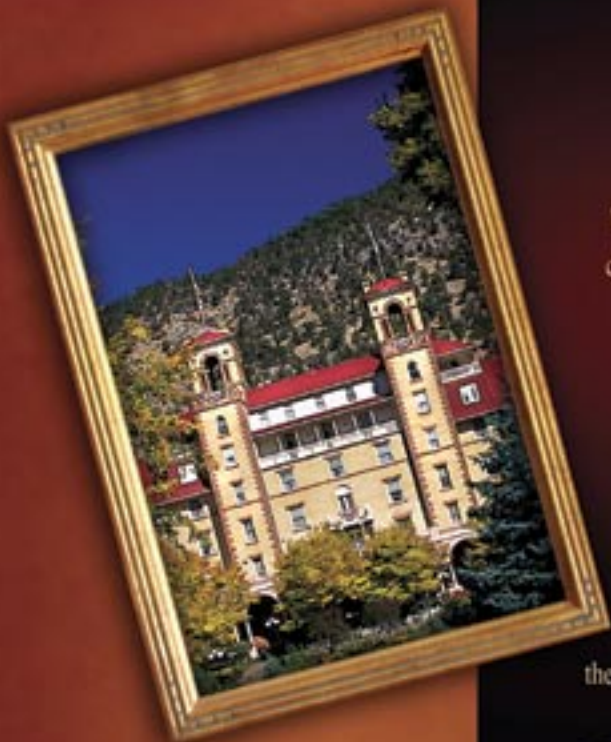

Molly Brown gathered socialites here.

Al Capone and Diamond Jack were regular guests.

They chose the Hotel Colorado for its service and style.

Weave your own story into this rich tapestry.

You will find the Hotel Colorado's consistent pattern of giving, serving, and remembering becomes a part of your event.

Culinary Panache

Legendary flavors and delights are part of each event. Savor high country cuisine and the rich flavors of the west. Give your banquet or reception that special touch with Hotel Colorado's award-winning banquet and catering cuisine. Whether you choose an authentic Western theme, or something more traditional, you will be dining on the finest selections in the Rocky Mountains. It's more than you can imagine.

Events That Make Memories

Epicurean delights are the starting point for what makes your event go from fun to absolutely unforgettable.

Memories of more than a century of society's finest events, including dinners for Presidents, permeate the historic halls.

Hotel Colorado continues that tradition

Enjoy hotel amenities such as fine dining, Legends espresso and gifts, our exercise facility, massage and aroma therapy, and a variety of shops located within the Hotel for your convenience.

Dining with Style

President Roosevelt would have been speechless. This cuisine was thought to be found only in Europe. Using only the freshest ingredients, our Chef brings a unique blend of flavors and aromas to our distinctive menu. Atmosphere and flavor finished with a cigar from our own private reserve make memories for the palate.

Indulge in our many amenities and dining venues before and after your event.

Our Chef creates seasonal themes designed to tantalize the palate.

Throughout the summer, enjoy award winning dining at the Courtyard Cafe and Copper Bar where floral lined walkways surround a centerpiece fountain.

Extensive seasonal cocktail and wine lists complement the menus to provide an exceptional culinary experience.
