Hotel Colorado offers summer fun for every taste

From spa pampering to whitewater rafting, it's all here in Glenwood Springs
GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Colo. With gasoline prices in the stratosphere, Front Range vacationers will be pleasantly surprised to find all the relaxation and adventure they could want less than a tankful from home. Historic Hotel Colorado in Glenwood Springs has put together a series of summer vacation packages that have something for everyone. Here's a sampling of this year's offerings:

- The Royal Treatment — Who doesn't love the world-famous Glenwood Hot Springs Pool? Guests who stay at the hotel on a Sunday, Monday or Tuesday will receive up to four passes to the hot springs pool, across the street from the hotel.
- It's Not the Destination, It's the Ride — This adventure is so much fun, the kids won't even know it's educational. A gondola whisks visitors up scenic Iron Mountain to Glenwood Caverns Adventure Park, where caves reveal stalagmites, stalactites, and amazing rock and crystal formations. The park features thrill rides like a giant swing that launches riders over the canyon rim, Colorado's only alpine coaster, bungee trampoline, zip line, and the virtual Conestoga wagon ride.
- Historic Jeep Tours — History buffs will love this trip back in time exploring the Glenwood Canyon by jeep, visiting the haunts of famous and not-so-famous former historical personages.

Hotel Colorado summer activities

- Other special promotions include family hiking, whitewater rafting, fly fishing, sunset excursion, culinary sampling, romantic weekends, full service spa, and girlfriends forever packages.

Located at 526 Pine St. in Glenwood Springs, Hotel Colorado is an economical and scenic 160-mile drive or a leisurely 5 ½-hour ride by train from Denver. Since its 100th birthday in 1993, the Hotel has undergone an extensive multimillion-dollar makeover that included improvements to all guestrooms, public areas and hallways, ballrooms, and the West Tower Bell Suite (renamed the Molly Brown Suite).
