Hotel Colorado celebrates summer, Old West style

Historic hotel hosts free CSO performance at Glenwood's Buckaroo Jamboree July 18th

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, CO — The historic Hotel Colorado will sponsor a free performance by the Colorado Symphony Orchestra on Friday, July 18, 2008 at 9:30 a.m. in the hotel's Grand Ballroom. All are welcome, but families with children will find this event an especially fun way to introduce young people to the world of fine music. This will be the perfect start to a summer weekend get away. Call 1-800-544-3998 to make your reservations today! Hotel Colorado is located at 526 Pine Street in Glenwood Springs, Colorado.

The CSO will be in Glenwood Springs on July 17th performing at the Glenwood Springs High School auditorium. Orchestra members will stay at Hotel Colorado during their visit, and Hotel Colorado will serve a complimentary late night snack to the players after their performance at the high school.

Hotel Colorado is located in Glenwood Springs, Colorado, just off I-70, and a short drive from some of Colorado's favorite destinations: Aspen (45 miles), Vail (65 miles), and Grand Junction (90 miles). The hotel has been a western landmark and destination for over 100 years, and recently underwent a multi-million dollar makeover of guestrooms, public areas and hallways, ballrooms, and the West Tower Bell Suite (dedicated as the Molly Brown Suite in 2003). Providence Hospitality Partners, LLC (Denver, CO) has managed the Hotel Colorado for almost 20 years and was instrumental in planning and completing the recently completed showcase restoration projects. Providence brings its long-standing tradition and reputation for excellence in professional management to the ongoing oversight of hotel operations.
